Re: Appeal No. DOJ-AP-2018-008621
Request No. 1369227
CDT:RNB

VIA: Email

Dear Emma Best:

You appealed from the action of the Federal Bureau of Investigation on your Freedom of Information Act request for access to all Twitter Direct Messages sent to or from any agency Twitter accounts. I note that your appeal concerns the FBI's determination that your request is not reasonably described. Please note that this Office was closed due to a lapse in funding appropriations between December 22, 2018 and January 25, 2019, which resulted in a delay in responding to your appeal.

After carefully considering your appeal, I am affirming the FBI's action on your request. A proper FOIA request for records must reasonably describe the records sought. See 5 U.S.C. § 552(a)(3)(A); see also 28 C.F.R. 16.3(b)(2018). The FBI informed you that you did not reasonably describe the subject of your request. The FBI is not able to locate responsive records with a reasonable effort. Your request is too vague and overly broad. I have determined that the FBI's response was correct. If you would like to discuss with the FBI how to formulate your request to reasonably describe the records sought, you may contact the FBI's FOIA Public Liaison at (540) 868-2101.

Please be advised that this Office's decision was made only after a full review of this matter. Your appeal was assigned to an attorney with this Office who thoroughly reviewed and analyzed your appeal, your underlying request, and the action of the FBI in response to your request.

If you are dissatisfied with my action on your appeal, the FOIA permits you to file a lawsuit in federal district court in accordance with 5 U.S.C. § 552(a)(4)(B).

For your information, the Office of Government Information Services (OGIS) offers mediation services to resolve disputes between FOIA requesters and Federal agencies as a non-exclusive alternative to litigation. Using OGIS services does not affect your right to pursue litigation. The contact information for OGIS is as follows: Office of Government Information

If you have any questions regarding the action this Office has taken on your appeal, you may contact this Office's FOIA Public Liaison for your appeal. Specifically, you may speak with the undersigned agency official by calling (202) 514-3642.
